

Shiksha Mandal's
G. S. College of Commerce, Wardha
Program Outcome
Ph.D in Faculty of Commerce and Management

Program Outcome

The main intention behind the Ph.D Program under any faculty is to make the students effective in the field of research and to promulgate the research initiative to solve the problems in their respective domains.

Program Specific Outcome

In the field of commerce and management research the following are the specific outcomes after the Ph.D program:

1. To develop the intend to explore the specific problems in existence in the field of business studies.
2. To motivate the scholars to expand the horizon of the knowledge in to the area of research based knowledge acquisition.
3. To leverage the advantage of the study of commerce and management towards the findings of solutions in the domain of business studies.
4. To make the researchers obtain scientific way of investigating the problems and to derive possible solutions.
5. The another output of Ph.D course in the filed of commerce and management is to create innovative tools, techniques, measures and methods adoptable in future in the domain.