About College

Govindram Seksaria College of Commerce was set up at Wardha, on 14th July 1940 under moving direction of Shri. Jamnalal Bajaj, the founder of Shiksha Mandal. It was the first single commerce faculty college affiliated to RTM Nagpur University, Nagpur and was inaugurated by Shri. Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. It is the first college in India to provide Commerce Education in Hindi to make it convenient for learners. Inauguration of Hindi Medium by Mahatma Gandhi on 9thAugust 1945 is one of its major milestones. The college now offers education in Management Studies along with Commerce education up to Ph.D. level. The college has produced quality students who have excelled at National & International level due to its student centric culture, highly qualified teaching staff and splendid infrastructure.

About Women Cell

G. S. College of Commerce of Wardha endeavors to create a sustainable, equal opportunity environment conducive for all round development of the student fraternity of the college. The college strives to ensure that the Women members of the College Community should grow professionally and personally. The college is committed to provide the college campus safe and exploitation free for the girls of the college. The Women Cell was constituted in the year 2004 to help and maintain a harmonious atmosphere to enable the girls to pursue their study with dignity and reassurance. Since its inception the cell performs various activities every year for the empowerment of the girls towards gender and social issues, health, career development and entrepreneurship development programmer. Publication of 'Samidha' began in 2023, and we are pleased to invite literary contributions for Edition IV.

About Samidha
